Mumbai, May 16

ADANI Ports and Special Economic Zone (APSEZ) announced on Friday that it had signed a definitive agreement with L&T Infrastructure Development Projects (L&T IDPL) and Tata Steel to acquire 100% stake in Dhamra Port Company (DPCL), in Odisha, for ₹5,500 crore.

The all-cash transaction is expected to bring Adani Ports closer to its 200-million-metric-tonne target for the ports business by 2020, Sudip Bhattacharya, managing director, APSEZ, told newsmen in a conference call. As per the agreement, the transaction is subject to the customary 'condition precedent', including lender/third-party approvals.

Bhattacharya said there will be no equity infusion, but Adani will raise funds for the project. "We will be raising some funds later, but we would not like to talk about the quantum just yet. Adani Port's net debt is very low and our debt-to-equity ratio is below 1:1," he said.

According to industry sources, Adani Enterprises is looking to raise $1.5 billion in bonds, and some part of that could go towards fund-
